KENT NAGANO AND OSM MUSICIANS AT THE MONTREAL CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Montreal, Thursday, December 18, 2014 – Kent Nagano and OSM musicians came today to share the magic of the holidays with the young patients of the Montreal Children's Hospital who enjoyed a concert created for them. The musicians and their conductor performed "Winter", from Vivaldi's Seasons and Léopold Mozart's Toy Symphony. The soloists were Jennifer Swartz, harp, Paul Merkelo, trumpet and Marie-André Chevrette, violin. The musicians Andrew Wan, Ramsey Husser, Alison Mah-Poy, Ann Chow, Natalie Racine, Eric Chappel, Denis Bluteau, Virginia Spicer and Serge Desgagné took part in this performance that will be etched in the memory of the children and their parents.

Concert program:

L. Mozart, Kindersymphonie in C major (Toy Symphony), Allegro

Handel, Concerto for Harp in B-flat major, Op. 4 No. 6, HWV. 294, Andante Allegro
Soloist: Jennifer Swartz, OSM principal harp

Tartini, Concerto for Trumpet in D major, Allegro grazioso
Soloist: Paul Merkelo, OSM principal trumpet

Vivaldi, Four Seasons, "Winter", Allegro non molto.

Soloist: Marie-André Chevrette, OSM associate, second violins

Angels We Have Heard on High

The OSM would like to thank Mrs. Marie-Josée Gariépy, President of the Foundation of the Montreal Children's Hospital, as well as all the members of the hospital team who welcomed the musicians and their conductor and made it possible for the children to have access to classical music for the holidays.
