From Grace Kelly to the OSM!

International musical sensation Mika launched his career in 2007 with his defining single Grace Kelly, which sold over 3 million copies worldwide and was the second British single ever to top the chart on downloads alone. His debut album, Life In Cartoon Motion, went straight to #1 in the UK and 11 other countries, going on to sell over 7 million copies worldwide. His sophomore album, The Boy Who Knew Too Much, went top 10 in 11 countries. His third album, The Origin of Love, released in 2012, includes collaborations with Pharrell Williams, Nick Littlemore and Ariana Grande amongst others. Mika has been nominated and won awards from the Brits, the Grammys, the Ivor Novellos, the World Music Awards and MTV awards from Europe, Asia, Australia and Japan, amongst others. He is also the recipient of the prestigious French award "Chevalier de l'ordre des Arts et des Lettres". Mika has now sold over 10 million records and received Gold and Platinum awards in an impressive 32 countries worldwide. He is currently working on his fourth album.
