THE OSM CONGRATULATES HYDRO-QUÉBEC WINNER OF THE PRIX ARTS-AFFAIRES DE MONTRÉAL 2012

Montreal, June 12, 2013 – The Orchestre symphonique de Montréal warmly congratulates Hydro-Québec, which last night was awarded the Prix Arts-Affaires 2012 in the Large Entreprise category.

“Through its tremendous support as a presenter of the OSM for more than 12 years, Hydro-Québec has made it possible for the Orchestre to showcase Montreal on the Canadian and international scene,” enthused Madeleine Careau, Chief Executive Officer of the OSM.

Madeleine Careau was also very pleased with the announcement of businessman Marcel Côté as Arts-Business Personality. A member of the OSM’s executive committee and board of directors since 1991, Marcel Côté provides invaluable help through his to his great passion for the arts.

Proud to be associated with such exceptional people, the OSM congratulates all the nominees and winners for their unwavering commitment to the arts.

These prizes, awarded by the Conseil des arts de Montréal and the Board of Trade of Metropolitan Montreal, acknowledge and reward the remarkable contribution of companies or individuals who support Montreal-based arts and cultural organizations.

The Orchestre symphonique de Montréal is grateful to its sponsor Hydro-Québec and looks forward to many wonderful years of collaboration.
